

TANKARDSTOWN

We came, We saw, We fell in love...

We came...

'You know you're in love when you don't want to fall asleep because reality is finally better than your dreams.'

Celebrate the beginning of your beautiful journey, along with your extended family and friends, at Tankardstown. Located near the village of Slane, just 45 minutes from Dublin. Tankardstown comprises 80 acres of magnificent parkland, walled gardens, courtyards and woodland all which set to enhance the focal point of the estate, an imposing 18th Century Manor House and Orangery.

Lavish or low key, traditional or trendsetting, simple or stylish. Whatever your taste, Tankardstown, exuding understated elegance and luxury, provides the perfect backdrop for the wedding day of your dreams. Especially yours for your perfect day, guests are welcomed into the Main House drawing rooms for pre-dinner drinks and canapés, then following down the winding staircase to the magnificent Orangery, at lower garden level, where dining, worthy of its surroundings, is served with great care and attention to detail.

All food is lovingly prepared by the Culinary Team in the Main House under the careful guidance of Head Chêf Eoin Gilchrist. Having earned wonderful reviews and acclaim from previous guests, Eoin and his team are constantly striving to create and introduce new dishes based on fresh produce and seasonality for couples to select from, thus creating their own personal menu for family and friends to enjoy.

Each and every special occasion at Tankardstown receives an equal amount of care and consideration from initial enquiry, throughout the day itself, right to the departure down the lime tree avenue and out the gate to your new life together.

We saw...

The Grounds

Woodland, rolling parkland, courtyards and walled gardens, surround Tankardstown House. Covering 80 acres, this relaxed and peaceful setting reflects the Georgian style of garden comprising large expanses of lawn and formal structured gardens. The walled garden in particular, with its summer house and pergola, is very popular for outdoor ceremonies when the weather permits, or for pre-dinner receptions. Music piped through the yew trees, adds a nice touch to any occasion. The ½ km lime tree avenue from the main gate provides a spectacular approach for guests arriving at Tankardstown at any time and a wonderful backdrop for photographs.

The House

Tankardstown House itself has been superbly restored and continues to be lovingly cared for. On arrival, guests are welcomed into the elegant drawing rooms and bar area adorned with antiques and luxurious soft furnishing for pre-dinner drinks and canapés. Large blazing fires and candlelight invite guests to relax and enjoy themselves chatting and mingling with family and friends. Should the sun appear, guests can wander on to the west end terrace and enjoy the late afternoon sunshine, before being called for dinner.

The Orangery

The Orangery, although a more recent addition to Tankardstown, appears to have always been there. Bursting with light this wonderful airy space, complete with formal roof planting nestles comfortably around the main house at lower garden level and offers a seamless link from the indoors; adorned with two large decadent chandeliers, antique furniture and gilt edged mirrors reflecting olive trees in large planters, suggest venturing through the double doors on to the terrace and gardens that lay beyond. Seating for up to 250 guests can be catered for at round tables. The Kitchen Bar opens out into the Orangery and whilst two tastefully decorated evening rooms are located discreetly at one end for those who wish to ‘step out of, but not away from’ the celebrations.

Accommodation

Tankardstown House has five luxurious bedrooms in the Manor House plus the Library Suite and Master Suite sleeping a total of 14 people. In addition, there are seven beautifully appointed Courtyard Cottage Suites situated in the adjacent courtyard which sleep a further 44 guests. Furthermore, the Barn & Stables alongside Tankardstown Lodge offer an additional twenty two bedrooms sleeping an additional 44 guests. Overall therefore Tankardstown can offer accommodation for 102 guests in total on the estate.

Some Frequently Asked Questions

We would love to visit Tankardstown, to get a feel for the place. Viewings of Tankardstown are strictly scheduled with one of our wedding co-ordinators. Because Tankardstown is a Country House, it is not like a normal hotel and we have to consider any guests/small groups who may be staying with us. A simple call or email and one of our wedding co-ordinators will be delighted to arrange a suitable time so they can offer you the best viewing possible of our beautiful property, including the bedrooms where possible.

What can we expect Tankardstown to provide to complement our package? Wonderful personal service to look after both you and your guests amid the beautiful house and gardens; Red Carpet on arrival; Open Fires on cold/dull days; Tea lights throughout all reception rooms; Personalised Menu Cards & Table Plan; Table Silks; Chiavari Chairs; 5-Arm Candelabra & Candles; Seating for up to 250 guests dining in the Orangery; Wedding Cake Stand & Knife; Magnificent photographic backdrops; Pre-wedding Tasting of your final selected Wedding Meal on a date/at a time to suit; The assistance of both the Tankardstown Wedding Co-Ordinator and Banqueting Manager along with complimentary Bridal Suite for the night of the wedding.

Do you have a minimum number of guests requirement? Yes, from Sunday to Wednesday a minimum of 50 adult guests are required; Thursday 80 adult guests; Friday 120 adult guests; Saturday 140 adult guests and New Year's Eve 150 adult guests. Exceptions apply on minimum requirements on the week leading to Christmas and the week after Christmas. Exceptions also apply to smaller numbers than minimum of 50 adult guests on a mid-week basis (Monday -Wednesday) for the 'Entirely Tankardstown' wedding package, please speak with your wedding coordinator for further information.

Is there a separate venue hire charge? No, this does not apply to weddings held at Tankardstown.

What are the deposit and payment terms? Provisional bookings are held for seven days, after which they are automatically released. A deposit of €2,500 is required to guarantee your booking. A second deposit of €2,500 will be required six months before the wedding day. A third and final deposit of €5,000 is due 3 months prior to your wedding date. All deposits are non-refundable. All other outstanding costs should be settled on the night of or the morning after the event prior to departure.

Do you host Ceremonies on the estate? Ceremonies can be held 7 days a week in Tankardstown. Should you wish to host a Civil Ceremony with us there is a €700 set-up fee with an earliest start time of 3.00pm. For further information on procedures please see the official government website www.groireland.ie. The HSE performs ceremonies Mon-Fri only. For weekend weddings, a Religious or Secular Solemniser is required. www.spiritualceremonies.ie; www.humanism.ie

Can you get ready onsite the morning of the wedding? Yes, Tankardstown can offer you a private hire preparation area called 'The Secret Garden'. This is located in our 'Garden Village' and is a short stroll from the Manor House and Walled Garden. Arrival from 7am with a hire fee of €600. Please see page 31 of the brochure for further information.

Are there Churches nearby? Catholic Churches nearby include Slane, Monknewtown, Rushwee, Rathkenny and Rathfeigh. The nearest Church of Ireland is in Slane. We can provide a list and contact numbers.

When can we have our speeches? Speeches are hosted after dinner. If you wish to opt for speeches prior to dinner service commencing, there is a €400 fee.

Is it easy to get transportation to local surrounding accommodation? Tankardstown can organise a shuttle bus service to local surrounding accommodation and would charge you as a couple for this service.

Are your Restaurants open on the day of a Wedding? Brabazon Restaurant is located in the lower courtyard area to the rear of the Main House. This area is known as The Garden Village and has its own dedicated entrance. There is also a large electric gate between the Garden Village and the Main House which is kept closed on days of Weddings, thus keeping the House and surrounds exclusive for the wedding party. The Restaurant remains closed on Mondays and Tuesdays of each week.

Can you tell me a bit more about guest accommodation at Tankardstown? It is a requirement to book all seven Manor House rooms on the wedding night. The Bridal Suite is included in the overall package, so the collective price for the remaining six double rooms is €2,000. Tankardstown House has five luxurious bedrooms in the Manor House plus the Library Suite and Master Suite sleeping a total of 14 people. In addition, there are seven beautifully appointed Courtyard Cottage Suites situated in the adjacent courtyard which sleep a further 44 guests. Furthermore, the Barn & Stables alongside Tankardstown Lodge offer an additional twenty two bedrooms sleeping an additional 44 guests. Overall therefore Tankardstown can offer accommodation for 102 guests in total on the estate. Breakfast is included in all overnight rates.

Is there other accommodation in the area? There are a number of alternative accommodation options in the area and we have a list with names and contact details which can be provided. We would recommend that alternative accommodation is booked well in advance to avoid any disappointment nearer to the time. In terms of transport, there is a local transport company who we would recommend (due to our remote location), that you contact and book to have your guests shuttled back and forth to the accommodation in the surrounding area at night time.

Is there the option to host a two day event? Yes we can host a two day event, any two days Saturday to Wednesday subject to availability. (Please note that Fridays, Bank Holiday weekends and dates around Christmas are considered single day events). There is a hire fee of €3000.00 to host a pre or post day event. Where a pre or post-wedding day falls on a Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday, you are contractually obliged to fill the seven Manor House bedrooms along with the wedding night. Where a post-wedding day falls on a Sunday you are contractually obliged to fill the seven Manor House bedrooms along with the wedding night. Wedding parties can choose to enjoy a family dinner in Brabazon Restaurant from a Set Menu tailored so that dishes will not be similar to those planned for the Wedding Dinner. For the day after the wedding a BBQ can be organised and is a very popular choice with our guests. The BBQ holds a minimum requirement of 30 adult guests. The BBQ is primarily served in the Orangery. During the summer months however if the weather allows, you can opt for your BBQ to be hosted outdoors on our West Terrace.

How do we select dishes for our Wedding Dinner? The selection of dishes will depend on which Wedding Package you have selected. A lot of careful thought and planning by the team of chefs has been injected into creating the Master Wedding Menu. Each and every dish on this Menu has been tested to ensure that only the finest produce is being served in its prime, combining elements and flavours to please most palates. It is also imperative that these dishes can be expedited for large numbers, without any compromise.

What happens at the Pre-Wedding Tasting? Your wedding co-ordinator will be in contact with you to consider a date for your pre-wedding tasting. Based on your wedding package you should submit your choices of the ideal wedding meal that you would both like to enjoy and serve to your guests on your wedding day. This information would be required about 14 days prior to the mutually suitable arranged time/date. At the tasting then, you will both enjoy some quiet time in the Garden Village where this Meal will be served up to you. If you have any related thoughts or questions, Chef will be happy to answer them. You can also taste one or two of our house wines with your meal, which you can consider serving along with your wedding meal. The Wedding Tasting is a complementary and intimate affair for the wedding couple and requires arrangement in advance.

Do you cater for all special dietary requirements? Yes, Chef will accommodate for all special dietary requirements with advance notice. We can also cater for 100% vegetarian/vegan weddings should the couple wish to avail of this for their special day.

Do you offer corkage? Tankardstown does offer a Corkage facility, although as our packages include some alcohol, we do encourage our couples to check out our wine list which has been carefully created to compliment the dishes chosen by you for your menu. If you wish to further discuss corkage, please ask to your wedding co-ordinator for information.

Can you facilitate disabled guests? We welcome disabled guests wherever possible at Tankardstown and try to facilitate their needs as best as possible, however, Tankardstown is an 18th Century House, so please discuss your requirements with us in advance to ensure the best laid plans can be put in place to make the day as enjoyable as possible for everyone.

We hope this is of some help to you, if you have any further thoughts or questions our wedding co-ordinators will be delighted to assist you wherever possible.
